

It is my understanding that Sinclair Broadcasting has decided to require Sinclair owned stations to "Stolen Honor", a partisan documentary including our local station WGBB. Coming days before the election and without opposing views, this owner manipulation is indicative of the risks in the abrogation of the fairness doctrine and increasingly narrow ownership of the media by partisans.

The airways are a public asset and are to be operated in the public interest, not for the benefit of an Administration in power as in Russia.